

Somber ceremony at a U.S. cemetery on Guadalcanal

The Tokyo Express made constant delivery runs of men and munitions down the Slot (left). U.S. reinforcements (below) was an effort to counter them. The effort paid off, with the final U.S. offensive of World War II a success, but it was not easy. Twenty-two Medal of Honors were awarded at Guadalcanal.

